

BART BAILEY

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Courage to Care Consultancy

Bart Bailey, Chief Operating Officer for Courage to Care Consultancy, has 25 years of corporate success with a keen knack for creating safe/brave spaces for meaningful dialogue. He has an uncanny ability to ignite change for individuals, teams and communities.

Bailey has utilized expertise in LEAN thinking to manage functions across a variety of industries including Engineering, Operations, Customer Service, Accounting and Planning and his commitment to empowering individuals to step fully into their passion and purpose is at the heart of his success.

Bailey is a longstanding JEDI practitioner and has led a plethora of race-related workshops, forums and conferences related to racial equity and liberation for audiences across the globe.

As COO of Courage to Care, Bailey leverages Justice, Equity, Diversity and Inclusion to improve employee engagement, foster belonging and minimize othering in workplaces. Bart serves as a Family Advisor council member for two healthcare institutions, Morgan Stanley's Children Hospital of NYC and Lehigh Valley Reilly Children's Hospital.
